

June & July The Journey 2020

My dear siblings in Christ at Emmanuel Lutheran Church,

To say life has been strange and disrupted over the past few months would clearly be an understatement. To date, more than 110,000 of our American neighbors have died from Covid-19, with far more worldwide. And though the push is clearly on for more openings and fewer restrictions, there are many, many members of our congregation who remain at high risk for the virus.

Your duly-elected Congregation Council has taken and continues to take the path of adhering to the recommendations from our N.C. Synod office and the ELCA nationally, which are calling for refraining from communal worship until North Carolina moves into Phase 3, which may come at the end of June. But whenever it comes, be assured that every precaution for the health and well-being of every worshipper will be taken into consideration. The Council has been working on a protocol for worship which, when completed, will be sent to every member and will set forth our procedure for corporate worship. Know, too, that if you are among those who will not feel comfortable or safe coming to worship, you will continue to receive the on-line service and links for your use, so you are truly included in our worship experience.

In addition to the Covid-19 disruptions, we have been clearly faced, as perhaps never before- in our community and throughout this country- with the reality and sin of systemic racism. I believe that it is our call and our duty, as Christians, as followers of Jesus the Christ, to live and speak and walk in the way that our Lord calls us to- loving our neighbor as ourselves, regardless of who they are, and striving to cast out the log in our own eye before being concerned about the speck in another's eye. Hard work lies ahead for us, the citizens of this nation. Hard work and deep soul-searching and difficult honesty. For only when we are willing to engage in looking at ourselves and our participation in deeply-ingrained systems which have and continue to hold down and harm people of color without our becoming defensive or accusatory can we ever hope to be part of the solution rather than part of the problem.

My prayers are with you, my beloveds. My prayers are with this nation and its leaders. I ask that collectively and individually our eyes will be opened and our hearts convicted with the need for change: long-lasting and much-needed change which will transform us into the people God intends for us to be, for we are each only free when ALL of us are free.

Peace...love...hope...blessing.

Prayer Focus

We pray the Holy Spirit will equip and inspire us to live lives that can't be ignored or go unnoticed, lives that cause people to ask who we are, what motivates us and how they too can share in our faith, joy and hope – not for our own recognition, gratification or legacy, but for God's glory.

When life seems dark, our problems deep and insurmountable or we long for forgiveness, pray to the Lord and trust God's word, steadfast love and power to save.

Remember in prayer parents and children during the summer months, a time when challenges of child care, hunger and meaningful, safe activities for youth can be complicated and acute; pray for wisdom and inspiration in creating services, programs and activities that support and strengthen families in your community.

It's sometimes tempting to underestimate our influence and impact in the world as children of God, followers of Jesus. Ask God to encourage us through the presence of the Holy Spirit to be confident and bold in bearing the good news of Jesus Christ and living, acting and advocating for the well-being of all people and communities.

July Prayer Focus

Lord, we lift up all those who are weary and are carrying heavy burdens in this nation and throughout the world.

We ask God to forgive us when we stray from God's truth and ways, that we will stay on paths of humility, love and justice.

When we feel weak, experience trouble or fear our enemies, we pray to God for strength, giving thanks and praise for the promise of God's enduring love and refuge.

We come to God in prayer, trusting in God's patience and responsiveness to our concerns, appeals and expressions—spoken and unspoken—and ask that God will deepen our faith and teach us to pray without hesitation or self-consciousness.

We lift Helen Sloop, Merlyn Schultheis, Ginger Eschenberg, Nancy Woody, Nancy Miller, Erin Woody, Marilyn Stewart, Gray Bowman's sister, Jamie Green, Diane Arbogast, Bonnie Faust, Stacy Smith, and Susan Smith's sister, Janet to God, praying for peace and comfort.
